Berry, Fowles & Company

Awarded One of the “2007 Best Places To Work In Maine”

The CPA Firm Picked as Top in the Small Business Category

Falmouth, ME – A Falmouth public accounting firm, Berry, Fowles & Company, has been chosen as the “2007 Best Small Business Place To Work in Maine” at an October 2, 2007 dinner and awards ceremony held at the Augusta Civic Center. The small business category is those businesses with 15 to 24 employees. The process began earlier this year and this is the second year this competition has been conducted in the state.

“I am delighted and extremely proud of this recognition. It reaffirms in my mind what I have known for a long time – that Berry, Fowles & Company has a great team that works hard for their customers,” stated Michael C. Royer, President of the firm.

The “Best Places To Work In Maine” competition, presented by the Society of Human Resource Management, Maine State Council, awarded several companies in various categories: large, mid-sized, and small. The assessment is a two-part process designed to gather detailed data about each participating company. In part one, the employer completes a questionnaire and in part two, employees of the company complete an employee survey.

Berry, Fowles & Company has been serving Maine businesses since 1915 and currently has 17 employees. A full-service accounting firm, they provide a range of tax, accounting, auditing, and management advisor services to businesses, municipalities, schools, quasi-governmental entities, and nonprofit agencies.
